Margaret Saunders' Meanderings

This year's meanderings will comprise monthly observations I have made over the past year, 2025.

February

We are two days into February 2025 and overnight frost glazes the morning, shimmering in the clear light of the early sun. It is six weeks since the solstice but it still feels wintry in the fresh cold air of day. Evenings are beginning to noticeably lengthen and a clear sky draws me out as the last light of the day fades into night. The new crescent moon, accompanied by Venus, shines brightly as I walk down Woodland Road to see if I can catch a reflection of these wonders in the village pond. I do. Standing in the almost darkness, an owl hoots in the distance and ducks murmur on the water. All else is silent and I savour the moment. Suddenly, there is a loud quacking and splashing as three ducks take off southwards and after a few seconds, another takes off towards the west. Minutes later and it would have been too dark for them to fly safely. Calm descends again as the ripples of the reflected moon and planet widen and fade, finally replaced by their perfect mirror image.

A few days later and the surfaces of both of the village ponds are covered with concentric circles from a steady rain. They gradually enlarge until the next raindrop takes over. There is something very pleasing and restful about circles: they have no beginning and no end, and are complete within themselves. Near to where I am standing, a hazel tree drips both catkins and raindrops. Looking around I notice that the drips from fine twigs form more delicate droplets whereas thicker twigs produce larger ones. Surprisingly bright green moss covers a decaying log amongst leaf litter, bringing to life a dark and damp corner.

On the greyest of grey days, when the mist has absorbed all the light, the horizon at West Hythe drifts in and out of view as sky merges with sea. Smooth waves roll in from the east at a forty-five degree angle to the shore, their foam sweeping in swathes, curving across the almost flat low-tide beach leaving a rim of froth on the exposed sand, then gently retreating to allow for the passage of the next incoming wave. The grey-green sea heaves slowly up and down – its vast surface 'breathing' rhythmically. Along the beach, a juvenile seagull struggles with an equally juvenile dogfish, one of the many which are washed ashore when strong winds stir up the water.

Cuttlefish skeletons dot the beach, reminding me of my childhood when one used to be propped between the bars of the budgerigar cage! This unique internal shell, the cuttlebone, controls their buoyancy. The ancient Greek and Roman word for cuttlefish is sepia as they emit a brown pigment when they are alarmed, hence our word sepia for a reddish-brown colour, usually associated with old photographs.

'February fill dyke, be it black or be it white' is an appellation given to the month, indicating that dykes are filled with rain or melting snow, and certainly the two village ponds and the Nailbourne are brimming with Winter rain.

Molehills march across Court Lodge Green in lines, suddenly turning at a right angle before continuing. Worm rich soil attracts them to this field, as does the churchyard, which is peppered with them, albeit in a more random pattern. These mole runs are in fact traps where the mole can sense if a worm falls into the tunnel, whereupon it will either eat it or store it in a 'larder' for future consumption.

Snowdrops, their shy heads dancing in the breeze, are scattered across the churchyard in clumps, ready to provide pollen for early bees.

A bank of them borders the green area in the school grounds, but the best place to see these Candlemas bells is opposite the cricket ground, where they have proliferated to such an extent that the whole area becomes white at this time of year. February is typically the first month when primroses flower, the word primrose coming from the Latin primus or prima rose meaning the first 'rose' of the year. Nearing the end of the month there are signs of milder weather as the wind direction swings from the east to the south-west, bringing more rain, interspersed with sunny periods, but as we finally leave February, the nights are cold and frost filled, with early morning fog dissipating as the sun gains height and strength. On the very last day the morning mist is soon replaced by a splendid blue sky, which seems to announce that Spring is not too far away.

Rector's Wonderings..

What Can I Say?

A poem by Mary Oliver

*What can I say that I have not said before?
So I'll say it again.
The leaf has a song in it.
Stone is the face of patience.
Inside the river there is an unfinishable story
and you are somewhere in it and it will never end until all ends.*

*Take your busy heart to the art museum and the chamber of commerce
but take it also to the forest.
The song you heard singing in the leaf
when you were a child is singing still.
I am of years lived, so far, seventy-four,
and the leaf is singing still.*

I wonder what things nourish your soul?

One way God nourishes our souls is through the beauty of nature.

Throughout the Bible we read about God communicating to us in the skies, ocean waves, breeze rustling through the trees, fields and flowers, and birds.

Jesus often used examples from nature - sparrows, lilies, fig trees, seeds and vines.

A reminder that God is constantly speaking through his creation.

Nature reveals God's beauty, glory, power, wisdom, presence, and creativity.

As psalm 8 tells us - the heavens are telling the glory of God.

There's so much in nature that opens our hearts to God.

To take a walk on a beautiful day, play with your dog in the grass, or hold your cat on your lap, are ways for many people to connect with God's loving presence.

So take time to enjoy God's creation, and let go of stress!

Rediscover what it was that sang when you were a child...

LYMINGE COMMUNITY HUB

At a meeting of their Cabinet on 21st January, Folkestone & Hythe District Council (FHDC) voted itself the money to convert a community use building to housing. The plan is to convert the whole building of Everist Court in Lyminge to 5 flats, 3 with wheel chair access, at the total cost of £630,775.

FHDC is now anticipating that their, soon to be expected, Planning Application for change from Community Use to Housing will go through on the nod.

Age Concern, and latterly, Age UK, had a Community Centre in the building for 49 years, and for 18 of those years they occupied the whole building.

We have only been asking for the use of the ground floor for a period of about 5 years, to provide a café, thrift shop and monthly repair shop. We would have spaces where various agencies, whether they be part of the health service, other agencies or charities could provide the advice that is needed, so that people who live in this rural area can access these necessary services.

The Parish Council has plans to build around the Village Hall so that it can once again be available for the community to use, as was originally intended. This will probably take 5 years, which is why we would like the use of the ground floor of Everist Court for that time.

When the Planning Application for Change of Use from Community to Housing is lodged, there will be three weeks in which to write comments.

We will be asking as many people as possible to write in objections to the loss of a community facility.

If this occurs before the next newsletter we will be using social media and flyers around the village to give you the information needed to be able to write or email the planning department with your objections. So please watch out for this future information.

Letter to the Editor

Lost and Found

Just before Christmas I found a tablet in the road at the entrance to Hogben Close, Lyminge. I've asked around who owns it but to no avail.

If anyone has lost this tablet in this area, please contact me: Chris Vickers Jones, 8 Hogben Close, Lyminge, CT18 8ND.

DOG OWNERS please note

Seriously though, please clear up after your dog, particularly in areas of high footfall - pavements, bus stops, community areas, etc. As well as being unpleasant for the unfortunate person who steps in the faeces, it can also be a significant health hazard.

As our village grows and changes please can we all be more mindful of where and how we park. Please leave room for pedestrians, pushchairs and mobility scooters to pass on footpaths, especially along Canterbury Road. Many of our roads are 'No Through' roads and inconsiderate parking can form pinch points. This could make it difficult for large vehicles and emergency services to access the area. Vehicles parked close to the junction of Teddars Leas Road and Canterbury Road can make it difficult to see oncoming vehicles.

Have Your Say : Lyminge Village Hall Car Park

Lyminge Parish Council has received a number of comments from local residents about how the Village Hall car park is being used. These include concerns about vehicles being parked in a disorganised way, some cars being left for excessive periods of time, and occasional late-night activity that has caused disturbance to nearby homes in Woodland Road.

The Village Hall car park is privately owned and is intended primarily for use by people visiting the hall and its facilities.

One idea that has been suggested is installing a barrier at the entrance to the car park, which would be closed overnight only. Pedestrian access would still be available, including access to the bridleway.

We would really value hearing your thoughts on this, or any other ideas you may have, to help us look after the car park, improve safety and security, and reduce disturbance for nearby residents — while still keeping the area accessible for the community.

We appreciate you taking the time to share your views.

Please email your views to clerk@lymingeparishcouncil.gov.uk

District Councillors' update

– January 2026

Government Re-organisation – On 14 January, Members had a briefing from the ex-Chief Executive of Cumbria County Council. He took us through the process of where we are now in terms of Local Government re-organisation up to vesting day and beyond. It looks likely from what we know and from what he says that current Members will be expected to do another year until May 2028: some will decide to stand for the Shadow Body which will be elected in May 2027. Concerns were expressed by many Councillors on the costs and time scale of the re-organisation. However, it was emphasised that we should be looking at the opportunities re-organisation could bring if changes were looked at positively!

Storm Goretta – The District Council worked closely with Kent County Council to re-open Sandgate Esplanade after strong and forceful winds overnight caused damage to the sea wall and railings and beach-huts. Diggers are clearing the back of the sea wall to allow water to drain from the road, while teams are re-siting beach huts where possible and beginning to clear shingle from promenades.

Office of the Police & Crime Commissioner – A regular free e-newsletter can be accessed from kent-pcc.gov.uk – the current edition talks about the Plans for 2026, Police Property Act Fund, Police Funding etc.

Ward Grant – I have a small amount of funding available which has to be allocated before the end of February. Please email me if this is of interest to you.

Residents have until 30 January to comment on Folkestone & Hythe District Council's budget strategy for 2026/27. To comment on the strategy and to read the detailed supporting documents visit the F&HDC website. You can also visit the Civic Centre in Folkestone between 10am until 3pm. All feedback submitted will be considered as the detailed draft budget is developed. It will then be voted on by elected members in February 2026.

A new group of students became members of the council's youth forum. Young people from six local schools visited the Civic Centre. The group learned about local government and discussed a variety of topics including solar farms, the refurbishment of the Lower Leas Coastal Park play area and the council's use of social media.

District Councillors agreed to reaffirm their commitment to local volunteers and community groups supporting residents. There was unanimous support to continue to back the services helping people with cost of living issues. Councillors also agreed that a letter should be sent to KCC calling for its decisions to abolish or scale down its discretionary emergency schemes be reversed.

In severe weather conditions, in line with national guidance from Homeless Link, the council implement a scheme called SWEP. In the recent severe weather conditions, the council operated SWEP for more than two weeks. The council offers accommodation for rough sleepers and it is also an opportunity to engage with hard to reach groups and signpost them to appropriate support services.

The stabilisation work required above the play area in the Lower Leas Coastal Park in Folkestone is due to begin this month. The cliff will need to be shored up following a landslide last year. Once complete, the work on the fun zone's £750,000 refurbishment can begin. This will see new equipment and layout and is due to be ready for summer this year.

Auntie Win

Dear Auntie Win
at ninety three keeps looking across and muttering at me.

She's sitting as usual
in her favourite place busily knitting at a phenomenal pace.

It's bitterly cold
and the torrential rain-she simply ignores and treats with disdain.

She's not very happy
with me poor dear-
I'm not her favourite nephew that's clear.

She's a tough old lady is my Auntie Win
but she'll drown out there if I don't let her in.

SIMPLY CHUFFED TO BE FIRST IN 10 YEARS!

Small trains will be steaming into Elham during early spring when the village hall hosts a model railway exhibition on Saturday 11 April.

Some 14 layouts and eight reputable specialist traders feature at the event being organised jointly by the Elham Valley Model Railway Club and the Whitstable based East Kent Model Railway Society.

The event is designed to appeal to families as well as enthusiasts of all ages and skill levels.

The exhibits range in size from a couple of feet wide to others up to 17 feet long depicting busy junctions and swathes of landscape. A highlight will be Elham Valley Model Railway Club's layout depicting Elham Station as it was 100 years ago.

EKMRS Chairman Nick Evans said, "We were delighted to be invited by Elham Valley MRC to organise an exhibition for the village as we are ever keen to attract new audiences to our events. The last time Elham enjoyed an event of this kind was back in 2016."

Model railways have an enduring appeal across the age range and this will be reflected in the exhibits on display – some will feature traditional steam outlines while others are just as likely to include more modern diesel and electric styles of rolling stock. Sophisticated electronics enable them to be controlled by tablet or smart-phone while also offering a higher level of detail. Exhibits are coming from across the county and belong either to clubs or individual enthusiasts.

Traders will be offering a wide selection of pre-loved and nearly new models, accessories and spare parts, some of them elusive.

The exhibition will be open between 10am and 4pm on Saturday 11 April 2026. Adult admission is £6, children under five are free, children aged 5-16 £1 and families (2+3) £12.

There is limited parking at the village hall but it offers some spaces for blue badge holders. More parking is available in the centre of the village. Elham is served by hourly Stagecoach route 17 buses from Folkestone and Canterbury, taking about 30 minutes from either end.

More details next month

May I take this opportunity to wish every resident of Elham Valley a lovely New Year.

Council Tax

For each of the past 12 years, the previous administration at KCC increased Council Tax by the maximum amount allowed, which is currently 5%. The new administration is breaking that mould and has announced an increase of 3.99% for 2026/27. Although the Reform-led Council inherited a dire financial position, prudent management of the finances has allowed the authority to stabilise finances. Although a greater reduction in the amount sought would have been ideal, the authority has to maintain its statutory services and ensure the budget is balanced and sustainable. The administration is working towards potentially making further reductions in the 'ask' for future years.

We inherited a £732 million debt, daily debt interest payments of £84 million, a £20.1 million overspend, £121 million savings target for the year and a ballooning Adult Social Care budget. In nine months of the new administration, £100 million of savings have been achieved, debt has been reduced by £67 million and nearly £40 million of future spend re-profiled, enabling the lower-than-expected Council Tax demand.

International Rail

KCC continues to lobby government and other stakeholders hard for the return of international rail services to Ashford and Ebbsfleet. Further to KCC's major event some months ago, Ashford BC ran a local event in Ashford to further push the concept on 8 January.

Supplier Conference

KCC has produced its first commercial strategy, to ensure that it gets best value for residents from every pound spent and that Kent-based companies benefit from the annual £1.4 billion KCC procurement each year. In the past six months, there has been a significant growth in the number of Kent companies winning contracts. KCC is organising a Supplier Conference at The Showground, Detling on 27 January for suppliers to learn more about winning KCC contracts. To date, 600 have signed up to attend the free event.

Community Wardens

KCC has been expanding the number of Community Wardens and now enables Parish and Town Councils to pay for new posts. KCC would welcome discussions with any Parish or Town Council interested in exploring this further.

Environment Tax on Foreign Lorries

Kent's roads are damaged by large vehicles. KCC is pursuing vigorously the concept of foreign lorries being charged for use of Kent's roads. I would be happy to update via this Parish newsletter as this develops.

KCC Highways

Since taking control of KCC in May 2025, 6,500 gullies have been drained and 35,000 potholes filled (already more than in the whole of last year). KCC Highways has recently been shortlisted for the 'most improved performance' award by the Local Government Association; although KCC is adamant that further improvements will always be sought, as it attempts to manage Kent's 5,500 miles of roads.

Nuclear and Energy

KCC's stance is not anti-solar, but anti solar developments on high grade agricultural land. KCC has been leading on work to secure new nuclear provision at Dungeness. This is a long-term project, but a high priority for KCC, which has had a series of meetings with Westminster and major companies. There is significant support from the locality.

Docker Bakehouse and Brewery isn't really local - are Folkestone/Hythe/Ashford local? - but extremely worthy of being featured here. This month we are focusing on the Bakehouse that strives to hand-craft 'bread that is incredibly delicious, and sustaining in a way that benefits the community, customers and the environment'.

We plan to feature the brewery later in the year, highlighting its hop growing scheme. However, it is a measure of success that founders Wes Burden and Peter Nelson, both lovers of the fermentation processes involved in craft brewing and sourdough baking, that they have grown their business and split it into two arms, giving room for each to grow and flourish.

What now sits in a large industrial unit on the Park Farm industrial estate in Folkestone (humbly tucked away between Sainsbury's and Home Bargains) started in a shipping container on the Harbour Arm in 2016 before they became a thing, with no insulation or windows by a designer who had a passion for home baking.

This home baker was Wes Burden whose passion has not diminished even if his bread making is a bit less hands on now. He has a brilliant team of 40 people baking around 300 loaves and pastries per week.

This is all done as sustainably as possible. Flour, wherever possible is sourced from sustainable growers and mills. The huge bread oven is fuelled by wooden pellets grown sustainably in a wood in Yorkshire. Packing and distribution are also carefully considered, with no plastic use. How to get the product to where it needs to be is also a major consideration. This adds costs to the products which ultimately has to be passed onto the customer. Wes believes this is the right thing to do.

Walking into the bakery you are struck by 'the team', the staff who lovingly shape and make the loaves and pastries and the staff in the office who also hold this belief.

Thank you so much to Wes and Angela for the wonderful tour and the goody bags!

We did talk about the difficulty of finding Docker bread in Lyminge or nearby and we think we may have a solution. What if there was a rota of around 10 people who would be prepared to drive to Folkestone maybe once a month to collect online orders? Or there may even be some of you who go to Folkestone on a regular basis who could do this for us? Please could you contact us via social media if you are interested. Thoughtfulfoodgroup@gmail.com or on Facebook and Instagram @thoughtfulfoodgroup.

If you do visit the bakery you can also pick up some fresh flowers grown on a strip of garden at the back of the unit by <https://www.folkestoneflowerfarm.co.uk> How cool and connected is that!

To see the wonderful products available from the Bakehouse, and where you can find them as well as how to order online for collection, visit <https://dockerbakery.com>

How to make the most from a sourdough loaf.

Just eat it; it is very hard to resist.... but it is rightly expensive so there are ways to make it last. One slice is so much more satisfying than a slice of processed bread and it will last longer. Slice the whole loaf, keep out what you will use then and tomorrow and put the rest in the freezer. It defrosts quite quickly or can be toasted from frozen (halving the calories!).

- Sour dough bread is high in fibre helping to lower cholesterol and keep digestive systems regular.
- It contains probiotics which help to maintain a healthy digestive system by feeding the good bacteria in your gut.
- It has less sugar than other breads and is high in protein.
- It contains Vitamin B6 which is important for brain function and protects against depression and dementia.

Whilst something on toast is seen as a breakfast or lunch option, adding a salad and being creative with toppings could turn sourdough into a dinner option. Try caramelised leek & crushed fava bean. Or roasted tomatoes and kale, yummy....

LYMINGE PARISH COUNCIL

For Lyminge, Etchinghill and Rhodes Minnis

Stiles were traditionally installed to allow people to cross fences and walls while restricting the movement of livestock. While they served a useful purpose in the past, they now present a significant barrier for many users. People with mobility issues, older residents, parents with pushchairs and dog walkers can all find styles difficult or impossible to use.

Under the Equality Act 2010, highway authorities have a duty to make reasonable adjustments to public rights of way to ensure they are accessible to disadvantaged people whenever reasonably practical. This approach is supported by the current guidance and British Standards (BS5709), which promotes the use of the “least restrictive option” when managing access along public rights of way.

Preferred alternatives are set out as follows:

1. Gaps: The ideal solution where livestock control is not an issue, providing unrestricted access for all users.
2. Gates: Where some form of control is required, self-closing, two-way opening gates - such as kissing gates - are the preferred option. Many local authorities now offer free gate kits to land owners to encourage the replacement of stiles.
3. Stiles: These are generally a last resort and new stiles are rarely authorised.

What do people think?

Are there particular locations where these stiles continue to cause difficulties, or examples where replacing them with gaps or gates has worked well?

We would love to hear your views and experiences on paths and footpaths in our parish and what you would like to see happen.

Through the Window

As I look out into the garden, my attention is arrested by two doves forever foraging. For me they are the embodiment of harmony and peace.

Perhaps what makes them so is that I think of them as icons. But whatever it is, my imagination's lit and soars towards a different kind of world, called unity.

Where the thought we're separate from each other isolated and alone, is false.
We're each facets of one benign
and ever-expanding creative consciousness,

And with this thought, the fear is gone, that makes me see in you what you are not-a threat, an enemy, someone to blame, hide from, prove wrong, give in to or defeat

But how can I unlearn a life-long habit of believing separation's true?
Can I rewire the neural pathways stamped repeatedly by fear within my brain?

I believe I can, by using gifts already mine- a heart that's quietly attuned to truth and an imagination free to accept it,
the will to live a life reflecting its honest life.

Not easy, but by joining up two precious gifts. Imagination's one, the other's intuition, that is, attuning to the quiet leanings of the heart.

Be conscious of each self-condemning thought,
realise I don't need it, let it go-along with thoughts condemn others.
Find the unique goodness in us all-one I meet, imagine loving them, even when they don't agree with me.

Phil Gould (who sadly passed away May 2025)

A Robin's Valentine

I wear my heart upon my breast,
It's bigger, rosier than the rest,
No matter that it's upside down,
I'll be your king and wear your crown.

All winter this was my domain,
No other Robins could remain
To raid the feeders, mine all mine,
The single life my brain's design.

But now I sense a change of mind,
The sun now signals "Mate to find,
Instead of squabble, time to flirt",
I'm searching for a bit of skirt!

Please build for us a mossy nest
And incubate. I'll do the rest,
By bringing protein-laden worms
And insects, bugs and all that squirms.

In time we'll see our nestlings fledge
And still I will maintain my pledge
To feed and cherish fledgling chicks,
No matter if we've five or six.

So let us now our hearts combine,
No longer lonely should we pine.
Some flowers for my Valentine,
Look- Primroses and Celandine!

We Need Your Help to Identify...

Swift & Owl Nest Box Sites in the Parish

Please use this link or QR code to let us know where you think would be good locations in the Parish for placing nest boxes for swifts, barn owls, or tawny owls: <https://forms.gle/JbQczmtTiuA3ZrgH7>

According to the RSPB, "Each year, swifts fly from Africa to the UK to breed, but numbers here are plummeting and they desperately need help. In just 25 years, more than half of our swifts have vanished and the loss of nest sites in the roofs of buildings appears to be at least partly responsible."

Therefore providing nest-boxes designed specifically for swifts has become a key action to help reverse the decline. Please send us your thoughts on where you see swifts regularly and where you think would be potential suitable locations for swift boxes, bearing in mind the following recommendations from the RSPB: The boxes need to be placed on the wall of a building, tightly under the eaves (where the roof hangs over the walls). It should be at least 5m (16 feet) above the ground and easy for swifts to fly into. Think of how a swift will approach the nest – it flies down and then up to the nest site at speed, the upward swoop helps it slow down to land. The box shouldn't be in direct sunlight, so should be on a wall that faces north, east or somewhere in between.

Owls are also in need of suitable nest sites, tawny owls nest in tree cavities while barn owls nest in tree cavities or inside barns and other suitable buildings. Both species can be helped locally by providing nest boxes. It is recommended that for barn owls, at least 2 boxes are provided within 500m of each other.

Please let us know where in the Parish barn owls can be found, and if you have any ideas for great locations for nest boxes for barn owls or for tawny owls. Please send us your thoughts on the link / QR Code above, or by email to tony.king@lymingeparishcouncil.org.uk

Neighbourhood Plan: Significant Local Views Policy

One of the policies being developed for the Neighbourhood Plan aims to identify views that are particularly special and to safeguard from the impacts of development. To do this we need to identify the key views that should be protected, and for each, develop a description and photograph with a map showing the location, direction and breadth of the view.

Please let us know about views you think should be included, by contacting the Parish Council (barbara.winham@lymingeparishcouncil.gov.uk). The views that have been suggested so far during local consultations include:

- Top of Tolsford Hill. Looking south towards France, over Folkestone and the sea and east towards Romney marsh.
- Court Lodge Green (Bumpy

Field). Views of the valley. Also good for sunsets.

- Where Brady Road crosses Woodland Road, view of the valley, especially good at sunset.
- Church Road Lyminge, view looking north towards the church tower.
- Tayne Field/Well Field, views of the Church.
- Tayne Field Views SW and W up to the ridge line.
- Canterbury Road (near New Lyminge Surgery), view SW/W up towards the ridge line, and Rectory.
- Field end of North Lyminge Lane, view eastward towards the hills.
- View of church from the alley, Brady Road to Beddingfield Road.
- Centre of Etchinghill, toward village sign taking in old cottages and pub (conservation area).
- St Mary's Field. View looking towards Tolsford Hill.
- Top of Teddars Leas Road View looking towards the sea.
- Newbarn corner. Looking over the golf course towards the Ridge line.
- Farthing Common, over the valley towards the sea.
- View of Church from Canterbury Road, following course of the Nailbourne.

Neighbourhood Plan: Biodiversity & Wildlife Corridors Policy

For this policy we need to create a list of the natural features of the landscape that are particularly important in the area. We will try to give more details next month but in the meantime please feel free to send any ideas to tony.king@lymingeparishcouncil.org.uk

The First Etching hill Christmas Pétanque Competition

The first Etchinghill Christmas pétanque competition took place in December 2011. The players were Etchinghill residents from St Mary's Drive and St Mary's Close.

Over the 14 years some residents have moved on, some of us have grown up and many grown old gracefully, maybe!

The weather has always been challenging but this years, cold and wet, proved to be very demanding. The teams now play under the names of The Drive Invitational team and the Close Invitational team. Players include residents from other parts of Etchinghill along with invited guests.

Due to the inclement weather the strong support and many players slowly drifted away due to the damp wet conditions. Enough players just managed to hang in to the end with the Close finally winning by 2 legs to one.

Congratulations to both teams for showing grit and determination in achieving a result and well done to the Close team on coming out on top. And anyway there is always next year.

The Big Fat Christmas Quiz

About 100 quizzers attended the Big Fat Christmas Quiz at the Etchinghill Village Hall on Saturday 6th December. The questions had been verified by Santa's little helpers therefore there were very few contested answers. Christmas crackers and mince pies were supplied to each table with further refreshments including the odd beverage brought by the participants.

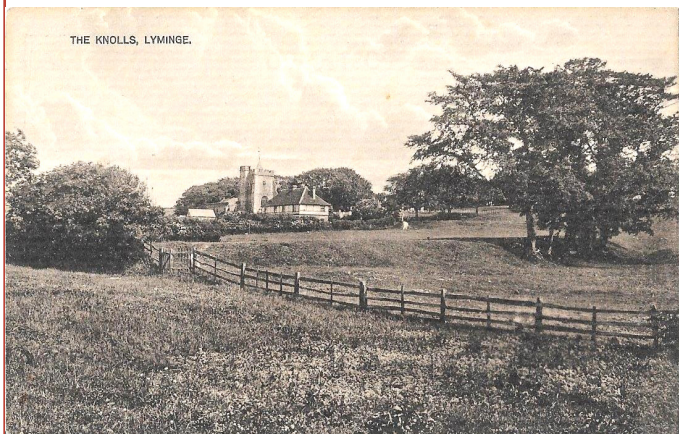

The evening was an enjoyable night out and thanks must go to all the trustees and helpers along with all the players that made the event such a successful festive quiz.

LYMINGE THEN AND NOW

Our monthly look at how Lyminge has changed over the years, with thanks to Lyminge Historical Society.

This view is taken by the turning to the Village Hall off Woodland Road. At the beginning of the 20th Century, like now, this field was properly called Court Lodge Green. However, then, it was popularly known as the Knolls, which is really just a variation on the name by which it is usually known today – the bumpy field. It is interesting that in the view above from about a hundred years ago, there is no sign of the ponds that we see today. This is curious because there appear to have been two ponds marked here on the 1907 Ordnance Survey map, and ponds can also be found on this spot on the Tithe Map of 1837 and on the oldest map of Lyminge drawn in 1685. So the ponds here are a long-standing historical feature.

Court Lodge Green itself is the westernmost part of the precinct of the monastery that certainly existed in the area around the parish church by 700AD, and possibly earlier. Excavations at the bottom of the hill, in the foreground above, showed that this was an industrial area where iron was worked into tools by blacksmiths. Later in the period after the Norman Conquest, the Archbishops of Canterbury built a palace that stretched from the churchyard into Court Lodge Green. The outline of part of this is marked on the path leading to the war memorial, and the humps and bumps in the field are remnants too. The last fragments of this palace complex survived as Court Lodge, which was also marked on the map of 1685, roughly half-way up the hill.

Today the field is protected for the benefit of the whole village as a village green, and is managed in accordance with a plan designed to encourage and promote wildlife and biodiversity.

In January, Lyminge Friends enjoyed a lovely lunch at the King's Arms, Elham
